

DEE DANIELS: GREAT LADIES OF SWING

Friday, July 22 at 7:30 PM

Royal Theatre, 805 Broughton St.

Kick off summer celebrations with iconic jazz diva Dee Daniels! Her dazzling four-octave range will be on full display, in a collection of timeless standards by swing legends Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Peggy Lee, and Sarah Vaughan. Includes such classic hits as A Tisket A Tasket, Fever, Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man, Makin' Whoopee, and Mack The Knife, among others.

THE COMPLETE BRANDENBURG CONCERTOS

Tuesday, July 26 at 7:30 PM

Wednesday, July 27 at 7:30 PM

Christ Church Cathedral, 930 Burdett Ave.

Full of joy and almost unfathomable creative genius, the six Brandenburg Concertos by J.S. Bach are universally regarded as some of the greatest musical works ever written. Join the VS for performances of the complete concerti over two nights, alongside both favourite and less familiar baroque works, performed in a venue unlike any other.

MOZART & MARTINIS

Friday, July 29 at 6:00 PM

The Atrium, 800 Yates St.

Start your weekend right with a cocktail, appetizers, and the excellence of the VS in the most intimate & informal of settings. One of our signature events, this highly social gathering takes quality music outside the concert hall and offers an entirely different VS experience!

Presented by Island Savings Wealth Management.

VS PRESENTS AT THE CAMERON BANDSHELL BEACON HILL PARK JULY 23, 24, 25, 28 & 30, 2022

Take a bench seat at the Cameron Bandshell, or bring your own chair or blanket for FREE outdoor concerts in a diverse range of genres. Throughout our explorations, the music is rooted in various traditions, but the performers may also branch out into new territories.

AYSANABEE

Saturday, July 23 at 7:30 PM

Aysanabee burst onto the scene at the 2020 Indigenous Music Awards. His music has been variously described as introspective folk, indie-pop-rock, and R&B – but the deep soul in his voice comes through in whatever song he sings. His music tells the story of his life, his lived experience and about reconnecting with his Oji-Cree roots. “Pure heart and soul run deep with his message and beat.”

PABLO CARDENAS – AFRO CUBAN ROOTS

Sunday, July 24 at 7:30 PM

One of the finest Cuban pianists of his generation, Pablo Cardenas wows audiences with his charismatic mix of jazz, fusion, and Cuban styles from traditional to contemporary. He welcomes percussionist Israel (Toto) Berriel and friends in an exploration of Afro-Cuban beats.

ITAMAR EREZ QUARTET

Monday, July 25 at 7:30 PM

Itamar Erez’s musical influences and passions encompass the globe. An acoustic guitarist, pianist and composer, Itamar Erez is equally at ease in a wide range of styles, from flamenco and bossa nova, to contemporary classical, and a hybrid of jazz and world music. Alongside friends François Houle on clarinet, Jeff Gammon on bass and drummer Kevin Romain, they will present music of endless horizons.

GAMELAN BIKE-BIKE – BALINESE INSPIRATION

Thursday, July 28 at 4:00 PM

Gamelan Bike-Bike draws its musical inspiration from Bali, Indonesia and its raw materials from the scrap metal bins of Vancouver. Founded in 2012 as a community-based ensemble, the group’s instruments were created from various scrap metals, including over 100 discarded bicycle frames that were transformed into tuned metallophones and gongs.

STELUȚA – FESTIVE FOLK!

Thursday, July 28 at 7:30 PM

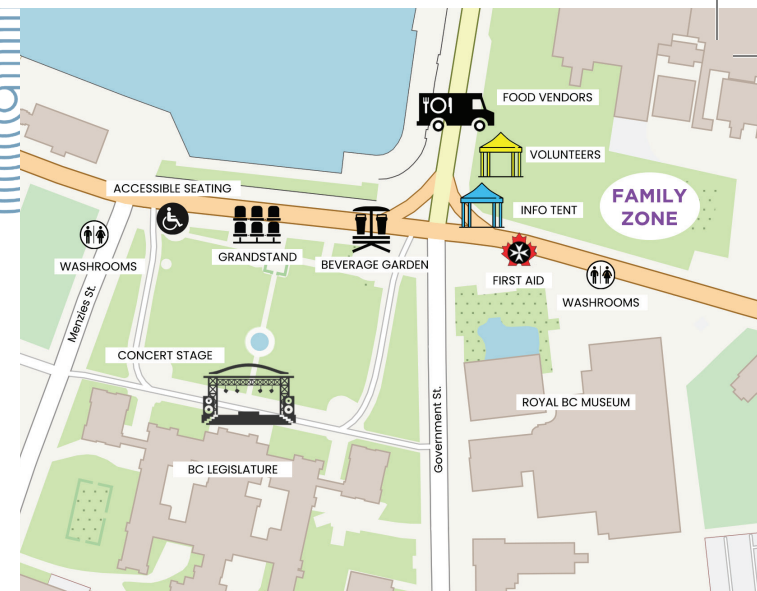

“SteluȚa” is the Romanian word for “little star,” and the members of the ensemble SteluȚa play in a constellation of musical styles! From Klezmer and Romany tunes, to lively Greek dances as well as original works, the acoustic quartet shines brightly. As the sun begins to set, join them at the Cameron Bandshell as the stars emerge.

A CELTIC KITCHEN PARTY

with members of La Nef

Saturday, July 30, at 7:30 PM

Time to put on your best red shoes and dance! The kettle is on and members of the Montreal ensemble La Nef are ready to lead the party. Whether your roots are Celtic or not, you’ll feel a warm welcome in the company of Seán Dagher on cittern, master fiddler / violinist Kate Bevan-Baker, flutist / multi-instrumentalist Dave Gossage, and double bassist Bill Gossage, as they raise their voices and your spirits!
